Although this is the last paper version of SBC News, advertising will continue on our website. A new brighter and more modern-looking website is in preparation, and this will contain a news section with in-line advertisements included. We plan to send out an E-mail to members which will include direct links to news items on the website. Not only will members see your advert, but because it's on the web, it can be found by people using search-engines to find your services.
